Commissioner for Patents

Sir:

In response to the NOTICE OF PATENT EXPIRATION, printed on 10/25/2010 the subject

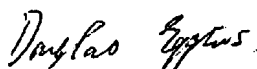

Patentee hereby petitions for the reinstatement of the above-identified expired patent.

A Declaration explaining the delay in payment of the subject maintenance fee is presented herewith.

Payment of the outstanding maintenance fee and surcharge is presented herewith.

It is respectfully submitted that the delay in payment of the maintenance fee was unintentional, and reinstatement of the patent is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Douglas W. EGGINS Patent Agent

OFFICE OF PETITIONS

DECLARATION

I, Scott Anderson, a Canadian citizen residing in the city of Tottenham, Simcoe County, in the Province of Ontario, Canada, hereby Declare and state that:

- 1) I am currently the President of the Canadian Office of The Look Company, a company owned by Edward Burke, the patentee of the above-identified patent, currently expired.
  - 2) At the time of issuance of the subject patent the responsibility for the payment of Maintenance Fees was taken over by the Patentee.
  - 3) The first Maintenance Fee at three and a half years was timely paid by the Office.
  - 4) Due to my absence and that of the Proprietor/Patentee from Canada at the time the second Maintenance payment became due, that payment was not made, and the subject patent ultimately expired.
  - 5) I am informed that a possible Reminder Notice directed to the original Patent Agent was possibly mailed to his previous address, which was changed in 2002 without notice being given to the issuing authority. Such Notice was not received by the Patent Agent.
  - 6) The delay in making the second Maintenance Fee payment was totally unintentional.
- Further the Declarant sayeth not

Signed at Barrie, Simcoe County, Ontario, Canada, this 13th day of December, 2010.

Scott Anderson
